Dear parents / guardians

NEWSLETTER 10

GENERAL

The new school term is here and we are excited about all the planned events for our learners and staff. Welcome to the new learners who have joined us. We know that you will adapt quickly and be very happy at Stulting Primary School. Along with this newsletter, we are also providing you with the adjusted annual programme.

Parent-Teacher Meetings: Many thanks to all our parents who took the opportunity to meet with the staff yesterday afternoon/evening regarding their children's academic achievements in term 1. I would like to remind parents that you can make an appointment to consult a teacher at any time and that you do not have to wait for a formal teacher-parent evening.

Extramural timetable: Activities on the extramural timetable will commence on Monday 13 April. Please ensure that your child/ren arrive on time for activities and wear the correct attire.

ACADEMICS

ATKV Knockout Competition (Spelling): This year our grade 6 and 7 Afrikaans Home Language and First Additional Language learners are participating in the ATKV Knockout Competition. The spelling competition is focused on improving grade 6 and 7 learners' vocabulary and spelling ability. The first round will take place on 20 and 21 April during class time. Learners have already received the spelling lists. More information will follow next week.

SPORT

Riebeek Kasteel Sports Tour: Our u/13 rugby and u/12 and u/13 Netball teams undertook a very successful sports tour to Riebeek Kasteel during the school holidays. These teams all performed well and are now ready for the busy sports programme. Thank you to the coaches who accompanied and prepared our learners.

Tennis: Saskia van Loggerenberg participated in the Amex Super 8 tournament during the holiday in Bloemfontein. She finished 13th in singles and 5th in doubles. At the Amex Junior National u/12 tournament, she competed against the elite top 64 players in the country and closed the tournament by finishing 6th in singles and 3rd in doubles. Well done, Saskia!

Fundraising: Please remember to hand in the "bus books". We will be holding the draw on Monday, April 20. Thank you for your cooperation.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Kind regards

C.J. Coetzer
